

YOUTH ART COMPETITION

BALTIMORE CHILDREN'S OUTDOOR BILL OF RIGHTS

WHY?

We need YOUR help to spread youth awareness and ownership of the rights to the outdoors.

HOW?

Create art inspired by the Outdoor Bill of Rights!

ALL ART FORMS WELCOME
[see next page for guidelines]

DEADLINE: APRIL 22 (EARTH DAY)

SUBMIT ART HERE

Questions? Contact Anika Richter at anika.richter@baltimorecity.gov

COBOR ART DETAILS

ALL ART FORMS WELCOME

Ex. paintings, drawings, music, graphics, video, dance, poetry, spoken word, creative writing, or any other creative outlet!

TOPIC

Interpret the COBOR as a whole, or pick specific rights to focus on

SHOWCASES

Your art will be shown at:

-Office of Sustainability's Annual Open House (Date TBD)

Art will be voted on for prizes and future showcasing

-Office of Sustainability's GreenScape Celebration

FUTURE FEATURES

Winning art will feature in media campaigns including:

- Cities Connecting Children to Nature
- Earth Day Awareness
- The Plastic Bag Ban

BALTIMORE CHILDREN'S OUTDOOR BILL OF RIGHTS

ALL CHILDREN IN BALTIMORE HAVE THE RIGHT TO:

BREATHE FRESH AIR

EXPLORE SAFE AND INVITING FORESTS AND WILD SPACES

SPLASH IN CLEAN STREAMS, PONDS, RIVERS AND THE BAY

GROW A GARDEN AND EAT
FRESH FRUITS AND VEGETABLES

PLAY IN VIBRANT NEIGHBORHOODS, SCHOOLYARDS AND PARKS

UNDERSTAND AND FEEL CONNECTED TO THEIR CITY'S UNIQUE ECOSYSTEM

DEVELOP CONFIDENCE IN OUTDOOR SKILLS AND RECREATION

WORK WITH NEIGHBORHOOD MENTORS IN NATURE

HAVE SPACE FOR AGENCY AND ACTION

